

The MKE International Office is announcing a call for applications for international MKE students to participate in the International Demonstrator position for the fall semester of the 2026/2027 academic year

The MKE International Office welcomes applications from international students who are eager to help scholarship and self-supporting students from countries outside Europe integrate into university life, navigate the educational system, and organize meaningful leisure activities. The teaching assistant position is an excellent opportunity to build relationships with incoming students, improve your foreign language skills, and learn about other cultures; it is also a position of responsibility.

Responsibilities: Providing assistance, as needed, in the following matters:

- Handling official matters related to international students with full-time studies
- Resolving any issues that arise
- Maintaining contact with the International Mobility Office, Registrar's Office and the relevant Departments at the university, handling academic matters
- Helping students get involved in campus life and organizing recreational activities

Application requirements:

- Active student status at MKE
- International student
- At least two completed semesters
- Confident English language skills

The following are considered advantages:

- Participation in a previous study abroad scholarship program
- Participation in other mentoring roles (volunteer work, teaching assistant work)
- Knowledge of additional foreign languages
- Other relevant work experience

Compensation:

- Separate university scholarship (50,000 HUF/month)

Application:

- Submit a resume with a photo, a cover letter, and proof of language proficiency to the email address sh.koordinator@mke.hu by the following deadline:

By 8:00 a.m. on Monday, September 21, 2026

Oral interviews are expected to take place during the week of September 21, 2026

Duration of the scholarship:

- The scholarship is awarded for one semester but may be extended for an additional semester without the need to reapply.
